

Rules of Probability

- R1. The probability of an impossible event is zero.
- R2. The probability of an event that is certain to occur is one.
- R3. The probability of an event must be between zero and one.
- R4. The sum of all the possible outcomes for any sample space must be one.