

Mr. Smith's decision to break-up the unit on solving linear equations into 2 units; solving linear equations and problem solving provided his students to really focus on problem solving – a real weakness in mathematics. You are commended for taking the additional time to schedule that and address the needs of our students.