

Word Problems – 2 variables

Choices

The more math you know, the easier math gets!

More choices – More decisions
To make math easier

We have learned how to solve word problems in one variable and solve systems of equations, knowing those, we can now solve word problems in more than one variable.

The only caveat, we have to create the same number of equations as we have variables.